FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WASHINGTON, December 23, 1982 -- Orders for new freight cars totaled 249 in November, compared with 884 in October and 860 in November 1981, the Association of American Railroads and the American Railway Car Institute reported today.

Orders through the first 11 months of 1982 totaled 7,440, compared with 17,250 at the same time a year ago.

Even though orders for new cars are down sharply from recent years, the aggregate capacity of the nation's railroad fleet remains high. Aggregate capacity, the AAR pointed out, is more than 131 million tons, down only 2.4 percent from a year ago. The average capacity of cars in the fleet of more than 1.6 million cars rose, however, to about 81.5 tons, an increase of 1.7 percent over the previous year.

In addition, the AAR noted, more than 277,000 freight cars are now sitting idle on the lines of Class I railroads, and several thousand more privately-owned cars are idled now because of overall traffic decline brought on by the state of the nation's economy in general.

Cars placed in service in November totaled 750, compared with 1,037 in October and 2,154 in November 1981. Through the first 11 months of this year, 17,820 cars were placed in service, compared with 43,239 a year earlier.

As of December 1, the backlog of cars on order but undelivered totaled 5,040, compared with 5,597 on November 1 and 17,771 on December 1, 1981. Average monthly backlog so far this year is 9,360, compared with 32,116 a year ago.

Meanwhile, the AAR reported that 39 new and rebuilt locomotives were placed in service in November, compared with 31 in October and 45 in November of last year. Through the first 11 months of this year, 427 locomotives have been placed in service compared with 655 at the same time last year.

As of December 1, the backlog of locomotives on order but undelivered was 69, compared with 86 on November 1 and 166 on December 1, 1981. Average monthly backlog for the year so far is 147, compared with 307 last year at this time.

Taking retirements into account, the fleet of owned and leased diesel locomotives on December 1 totaled 27,197, compared with 27,606 on December 1, 1981.
